I am Meeting Expectation and Growing a Pool of Wisdom on Earth

I am submitting my own inclinations to the way of Yielding Heaven on Earth by Being Led by Heaven. I am enjoying the process of pooling clean, nourishing, wisdom into one unity.

I am gaining strength to make informed decisions and to avoid being destructive in my decisiveness. I am centering my strength to extend out into the world without overextending myself beyond what is fitting for the particular circumstances.

I am corresponding with others that are developing a similar foundation and I am extending my own development to them as they extend their development to me as well.
